TERRE IN MOVIMENTO

curated by Pippo Ciorra, Carlo Birrozzi in collaboration with Cristiana Colli

0

Three great photographers recount a changing landscape.

Olivo Barbieri, Paola De Pietri and Petra Noordkamp are the first artists involved in the Terre in movement project. Three artist for a photographic commission surveying the landscape of the Marche region, promoted by the Superintendency for Archaeology, Fine Arts and the Landscape of the Marche and by MAXXI, that present an overview of the landscapes, works of art, ruins, new and fragile settlements and the people inhabiting them, in the area devastated by the 2016 earthquake. A selection of works from the project will be acquired for the MAXXI Collection.
